News of the Blorning.

By reference to our telegraphic report of Le gislative proceedings, it will be seen that both Houses are not wasting time, but are rushing business through rapidly. A resolution was latroduced in the House, yesterday, forga committoe to report the most practicable method of dealing with persons convicted of murder. The bill to extend the time for the collection of taxes in this city was killed, but it will probably come before the Legislature again in a different shape. The two sailors, Cox and Williams, who were ploked up at sea some time since in an open boat. and made confession of having murdered the officers of the brig Albion, have been tried at Portland, Mo., and found guilty. A now trial will be had.

Two thioves were lynched at Lagonier, Ind., on Wednesday. They were caught in the act of breaking into a store. Important intelligence from Kansas will be found under our telegraphic head this morning. In the late election the Free State men have both Houses of the Legislature, but the Democratic Governor is elected by a small majority. The Torritorial Legislature has appointed commissioners to expenie into the frauds of the election, which are said to have been stupendous. The Michigan Legislature commenced an extra session Wednesday. They were called together by the Governor to make financial pro-

AMIDITICALCO OF PRES BRANSONS. The Detroit Free Press say :

The Detroit Free Press say:

A telegraphic dispatch was recoived yesterday by Mr. Wm. B. Wesson, from his partner, Mr. Orano, now in New York, stading that the suspicious in regard to Mr. Russoll's having loft Boston on board the steamer America were correct. That steamer arrived at Boston on her return trip yesterday, and her officers state that Mr. Russell went ever with them in a deranged with of third and having some achieve at Liver. state of mind, and, having gone ashore at Liver pool, was left, and now remains there. No par ticulars were given, but will be sent by mail.—

Of course every effect will be made to secure the safe and speedy return of Mr. Russell. The anxiety of his friends is very much relieved. On the other hand, the New York Police Gaante has the following :

We learn from reliable authority that he left the Aster House on the 15th alt, and was seen to enter a house of assignation, at which time it is supposed that he had in his possession one thousand dollars. He was not known to leave that house, and it is thought he was there murdered and his body cut to pieces. Two or three days the standard and read and his body cut to pieces. and his body out to pieces. Two or three days afterward a large trunk was mysteriously convoyed from the house, which it is thought contained his mangled body, and efforts are now being made to recertain what became of that brunk. If the suspicions of his friends are correct, that he was brutally murdered in that house, the guilty parties cannot escape, as they are watched with a jedous core, and a few days may develop one of the most fiendish murders, that has taken place in this city since the murder of

The message has a large share devoted to Slavery, and will be found to be but a repetition of Mr. Randail's specches while canvassing the State. Take the message, as a whole, it will compare well with any which has preceded it.

Mr. Carl Schurz or Wisconsin .- We coserve with pleusure that Mr. Carl Schurz was sleeted Clerk of the Wisconsin Senate on the first built, by the unanimous Republican vote of that body. This was a compliment to Mr. Schurzle worth and devotion to Republican principles, as maxpected as it was deserved,—Mr. Schurzle defined the office in a few appropriate remarks; after which Mr. J. L. OITY MATTER'S.

THE WHITEWATER TRACEDY .- JUSTICE .- A esident of Whitewater, a gentleman who is well equalited with all the parties, and particular connected with the late tragedy at that place, miled at our office yesterday and informed us that the despatch which we with all our cotempo. raties in this city, published on Wednesday, in relation to this occurrence, does great injustice to the young men who were connected with the unfortunate affair. The despatch, which the gen-Heman assures us, was sent upon the "spure the monout" without regard to accuracy, stated that "a parcel of rowdies assembled at the house of a newly married man by the name of Pierce for the purpose of screending him; They attacked the house, it says, "and while William Hamhim instantly, and wounding another person in MILWAUKEE: FRIDAY MORNING, JAN'Y 22.

A Fillbuster Dinner.

We have already mentioned that Gen. Wulker, after being politely discharged from the congenial custody of Capt, Rynders, by Mr. Secretary Cass, started on a "progress" through the Southern States, partly to receive the sympathy of his friends, and partly to revive their drooping spirits and declining hopes. At Richmond, the Capitol of the "Old Diminion," he met with ! warm welcome, and was sumptuously entertained at a public banquet. The speaker of the Senate, at a public banquet. The speaker of the Louise and the speaker of the House, many members of the did not represent the substance of the answer the Speaker of the House, many members of the correctly which Gov. Case caused to be communicated Legislature, and other distinguished gentlemen, graced the occasion with their presence, and soothed the dejected Filibuster with their sympathy. The repeat, according to newspaper report, was an elegant one, and doubtless got up, as the morry host of the "Light Guard Salcon," Harry Bingham, is foud of saying, "without regard to taste, or expense." Atter much bad been euton, and more drank, the Speaker of the Senate thus introduced the here of the evening : Gentionen, when the star under whose guidance our race was led in its march from James town to the golden shores of California, seemed to hover for a moment over those shores, those who had watched it with engercess and anxiety to know which way it would next turn, heard sounds which came from another shore, telling that Argeing value calling as that a sounds which came from another shore, telling of deeds of American valor—telling us that a hand, governed by a love of the just, and the right and the true—by the Angle Suxon spirit, sought to implant in far off lands what we worstip here. What breast was there that did not heat quester—what heart that did not rise in pride when it heard of deeds of valor which rivalled those recorded in the page of history. Need I say where those doods were shown—where those victories wen? I will give you answer in the sentiment: To the progress of free institutions and Wan. Walker. To this highly poetic discourse and prosaic sentiment, the individual alluded to, instead of modestly applying his dexter thumb to his nose, extending his digits and saying "Welker"which would have been a recognized and appropriate reply to such flaur us the Speaker'swent off, at full gallop, into a highly-colored narrative of his great docds in Nicaragua; an indignant denunciation of the U.S. oilicers, who interfered with and broke up his plans; and some playful pleasantry about the sort of " Free Institutions," which were to "progress," under his auspices, in Central America. We quote a

There are these, I know, who assure that there is a different way to Americanize Central America—a peaceful mode, and without the aid of to a me of those horizont and the second to a me of those heretofore mestacher in gaining that object. But if you will receive the experience, of one who knows the Central American race—has lived among them, believe me when I ray that it is utterly impracticable. You cannot carry. it is utterly impracticable. You cannot carry civilization there, by such means. It is only by the sword that you can hope to establish freedom; right and justice in that unhappy country. The peaceful colonization of the country by the pure white race has been frequently attempted. You must go with something more than this; and it is for this belief that we have been maligned and persecuted. It is because we discard the theories of pharisaical philanthropists. It is because we say to the white race—You must go accompanied by the negro slave. (Loud and prolonged applicate.)

The applicate which greeted Gon. Walker, at

The applause which greated Gon. WALKER, at the conclusion of his speech, was, says the report, "furious and lasted several minutes"—all due, no doubt, to the sense the meeting entertained of Walker's devotion to " free Institutions," and to the good things they had caten

Mr. JAS. A. SEDDEN, late M. O., from the Rich. mond District, followed Walker, defended Fillbusterism, and hoped to see the day-

When Walker's might and Waiter's right Mr. CHAILES INVING followed and said that the greatest claim Walker had to their sympathy had been passed over in comparative slience, and that was his obsdience to law. His achievements had made him immortal, and he could say that he had never yielded to any authority but that under which he was born. All his expeditions had been based on submission to law. Here was another chance for the here of the feast to have gone through the manual exercise and given the password, above suggested; but he reference probably because he did not see the joke. Mr. Invine went on to say, very feaukly and feelingly, that "he favored a South " orn Republic, where negroes could be servants and white men gentlemen"-a sort of Utopen that the F. F. V's of Virginia are very fond of dreaming about, and could undoubtedly-enjoy.

Other gentlemen followed Mr. Irving, and so many "long talks" were made that the company did not adjourn till nearly 2 o'clock in the more ing. The Richmond papers say that they had a good time of it; but they do not inform us how many Nicaragua bonds WALKER succeeded in disposing of amongst his money-making sympa thisers. Our roadors, however, will be able to gather from the extracts we have given, a very correct estimate of the character and objects of these Filibustering expeditions. In vine veritas. mays an old Latin maxim, and we have no doubt that Mosers, WALKER, IRVING, &c., while in their cups, told the exact truth when they said that Nicaragua "by the sword," and to establish die is not endorsed by the Democratic Congress, the design was to introduce "civilization" Into there a "Southern Republic," where all the as it has been by the Democratic National Ad-"negroes" should be "servants," and all the " white men" could be " gentlemen."

THE NEWS FOR THE LECOMPTON SWINDLE,-The News, obedient to signals from Washington, the exclusive friends of the Union, and sworn. is becoming more and more outspoken, in support of the Lecompton Swindle. In yesterday's, pranks. issue, it copied approvingly two articles, one from the N. Y. Journal of Commerce, the doughiest of Northern Doughfaces, and the other from the Leavenworth Times, insisting that the only fair and proper way to settle the Kansas Contro versy is to admit that State into the Union under the Lecompton Slave Constitution, and then let the Free State men go to work, it they see fit, and muchd the Constitution to suit themselves .-Those of our readers who remember the provisions of this Lecompton Constitution, on the subject of Blavery and Amendments, will readily discover what an inviting prospect this place of sottlement holds out. We know of nothing like it, save the polite invitation of the spider to the gruous and uncongenial measures into one bill, fly, to welk into his parlor and onjoy himself .-It is not probable that the Free State men will be willingly caught in that web.

A CARD .- I consider it a duty to warn the public generally, and ministers particularly, of a Swede by the name of Holmgron, alias Nikander, alias Bergman, etc., who represents bimself as being a minister of the Church of Sweden, and solicits aid under various false protences. He is on impostor, out and out. He has wandered about, sometimes with a woman whom he says is his wife, in Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, and Indiana, and everywhere he has deceived both his countrymen and others. He is about five feet ton inches in height, has long, flaxen, curly hair; eyes appear to be somewhat defective, and he frequently wears blue speciacles. G. UNONIUS,

"After a long and spirited debate in secret session to-day, the Senate confirmed the nomination of Theodore Sedgwick as United States District Attorney in place of John McKeen, by a vote of 28 to 28. Mr. McKeen was somewhat damaged by the production during the debate of his correspondence with Gen. Oass, a short time previous to the New-York Mayoralty meeting, in, which ha inquired of the Secretary if the Administration objected to his taking part in that meeting. Gen. Oass in answer advised non-interference."

On the 9th a contradiction of the above statement; of any such jiettors, having passed between us appeared in the same journal.

This morning, under the head of telegraphic news from Washington, the following appeared

The New York Tribune thus comments upon the above peculiar correspondence, " the sharp practice" in the United States Senate, to which reference is made, and the unusual discourtery with which Mr. McKeon was treated by the Presiwith which Mr. McKeon was treated by the President:

We publish this morning a correspondence best tween Mr. John McKeon, the late Uotted States District-Attorney, and the Secretary of Elate, drawn out by some alleged disclosures in the Sensite at a the time Mr. McKeon's conduct in our late municipal election was under discussion in that the time Mr. McKeon's conduct in our late the Executive Session of the Senste purporting to be from Mr. McKeon's conduct on the Election, to which Gen. Cass were said to have replied with the advice that he had better not laterfere. It now appears, on the evidence of both Mr. Mcon and the Secretary of State, that no such letter was ever returned. How then are we to account for its alleged production in the Senate? Was a forged letter primed off there, and used as an argument for the expulsion of Mr. McKeon from office? If so, who forged it? or by whom was it produced in the Senate? or had the Hen Fornando Wood any hand in the husiness? He has before been known to exhibit telters which senething to do in the present curious affair.

We regret to see, however, that the News is still haunted and termented by the fear, that a member of the defunct Jeany Lind Club, who has made himself audaciously active in the prying business of the Tax Payers Investigating Committee, may possibly reach the exaited dignity of an Aldermanic Unair, or even attain the sublime heights of the Mayoralty.-To guard the city from this apprehended danger, the News pronounces the gentleman in question utterly unfit for any such position of undoubted trust and rumored profit. THE DISTICTION BETWEEN GREATNESS AND MEASNESS. - What I must do is all that concerns me, and not what the people think. This rule, equally arduous in actual and in intollactual life, may serve for the whole distinction between reatness and monnoss. It is the harder, be-auso you will always find those who think they eauso you will always find those who think they know what is your duty better than you know it. It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after your own: but the great man is he who, in the midst of the crowd, keeps with perfect sweetuess the independence of solitude, -Emerson.
